

"Lessons Learned from Europe & VeloCity" May 29 - June 17, 2013

An Educational Tour to Experience Cycling in Europe (to bring home ideas we can implement in Hawaii)

Chad Taniguchi, Executive Director, HBL
Yamato Milner, Transportation Researcher, Livable Communities Hawaii
Patricia Johnson, HBL Volunteer

Bicycling, walking and public transportation are an integral part of life in Europe

Livable communities is the context for planning

Terminology

bicycle tracks/lanes/paths/ highways cargo bikes

Dutch bikes

traffic calming bulb-outs

roundabouts (flat, raised, double-decker) contra flow on one-way streets pedestrian/bicycle bridges raised pedestrian crossings/islands

30km campaign (18mph)

self-explaining roads

promotions:

- counters

- rest-bars with appreciation messages

- green wave

- stair rails

- bicycle fairs/events/games

 - bike fashion shows

 - bicycle polo

 - bicycle bell concerts

- critical mass rides

- bike repair mobile units

What's next?

- Counting project - September 10, 11 + 12

- "Manoa Valley Livable Community" project with Manoa Library

- Bike Month/Week/Bike to Work Day, 2014

- Advocacy team expanded

- Grow membership in HBL - 20x100 Campaign

- Work with DTS + DOT to promote better bicycle + pedestrian infrastructures

Travel Itinerary (20 Days) & Interviews

5/29-6/3 Copenhagen, Denmark

- Steffen Rasmussen, Head of Department of Traffic Design, City of Copenhagen
- Mikael Colville-Andersen, CEO, Copenhagenize Consulting

6/3-4 Amsterdam, Netherlands

- Marc van Woudenberg, Urban Mobility Consultant & Bicycle Ambassador, Amsterdamize
- Marjolein de Lange, Project Manager Think Bike, Dutch Cycling Embassy
Traffic Consultant, ML advies, organisatie & onderzoek
Strategic Advisor, Fietzersbond

6/5 Rotterdam, Netherlands

- Warner Beumer, Senior Designer of Infrastructure, City of Rotterdam
- Wim Hinkamp, Manager Urban Roads, Traffic Management, Traffic Safety & Bicycling, City of Rotterdam

6/5-6 Utrecht, Netherlands

- Herbert Tiemens, Senior Bicycle Policy Advisor, Bestuur Regio Utrecht
- Ronald Tamse, Traffic Engineer, City of Utrecht

6/6-7 Geneva, Switzerland

- Michael Ronkin, Owner, Designing Streets for People
- Juliano, Independent Consultant

6/8 Winterthur, Switzerland

- Sandro Ineichen, Traffic Planner, City of Winterthur

6/8-10 Zurich, Switzerland

- Wernher Brucks, Head of Accident Analysis and Prevention, City of Zurich

6/10 Zurich + train to Vienna

6/10-14 VeloCity in Vienna

6/15 Bicycle tour in Hungary (Iron Curtain Ride)

6/16 Vienna

6/17 Return home